Circular No.03/AMW/TSIIC/2015, Date : 28.2.2015

Sub : TSIIC Limited - Allotments approved in State Level Allotment Committee Meeting subject to Sub-division - Certain instructions - Issued - Regarding.

It is observed that, the allotments which are approved in the State Level Allotment Committee / DIPC subject to sub-division, the Zonal Managers are not subdividing the plots and not issuing allotments letters to the entrepreneurs and delaying for months and creating hurdles to the entrepreneurs in turn revenue to the Corporation is not received and losing time and the same applications are reflected in the consequent SLAC Meetings again and again.

The above issue is examined and it is clarified that, when once allotment is approved in the SLAC subject to sub-division, the Zonal Managers are advised to subdivide the plot following Town Planning Regulations at Zonal Office level and release allotment letters. Simultaneously send such plans for approval to the Head Office incorporating in the layout and get ready for required approvals in (90) days and see that the Agreement for Sale is executed within (120) days of allotment.

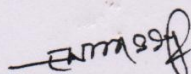

In view of the above, the Zonal Managers are instructed to follow the instructions scrupulously.
